POLICE INVESTIGATE MURDER IN CHOLLAS VIEW

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the shooting death of a male in Chollas View last night.

At 5:51 p.m., officers responded to a report of a shooting at the intersection of Euclid Avenue and Geneva Avenue. They arrived to find a black male who was suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. Paramedics responded but the victim died at the scene.

The preliminary investigation has revealed that the victim pulled into a gas station in the 1000 block of Euclid Avenue. As he was about to pump his gas, he was approached by two male suspects who began shooting at him. The victim was struck by multiple gunshots and collapsed. One of the suspects may have exited from the back seat of a white four-door car just prior to the shooting. After the shooting, the suspects fled from the gas station on foot.

The suspects have been described as two black males, 20 to 25 years of age, both wearing dark clothing and possibly beanie type caps or hooded type sweatshirts.

The victim, age 35, has been identified but his name is being withheld until complete notification of his family.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
