DECEMBER 2006 SEXUAL ASSAULT CASE

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department Sex Crimes Unit is asking for assistance from the public on a sexual assault that occurred at about 10 a.m. on December 23, 2006. A 17-year-old female was at the Hollister Street trolley station waiting for the trolley. The suspect approached the victim and engaged her in conversation about religion. The suspect lured the victim over to his car to show her some religious pamphlets and magazines. He then forced her inside the car and drove away. The suspect sexually assaulted the victim. She eventually unlocked the car door and ran away.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male, between 25 and 27 years old, brown eyes, black hair, 5'7" – 5'8" 180 – 220 lbs. He was last seen wearing a dark hooded sweatshirt and blue jeans (composite on Page 2). The suspect's car is a black or dark colored 4-door Volkswagen Jetta with a missing stereo faceplate. This case is not part of a series.

Sex Crimes detectives have exhausted all leads in this case and are hoping a member of the public may have seen something or knows something about this case.

Anyone with information about this case or the suspect is asked to call the Sex Crimes Unit at (619) 531-2210 or Crime Stoppers anonymous, toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS.
