ARREST MADE IN JUNE 2002 HOMICIDE

San Diego Police Department Homicide detectives have arrested a suspect in the June, 2002 murder of 41-year-old Don Suk Su.

Mr. Su was the business owner of Han Kuk Billiards located at 4690 Convoy Street. On June 14, 2002 at about 11 p.m., Don Su and two other male victims were shot by unknown suspects during a "drive-by" shooting at the above location. Su later died of his injuries at a local hospital.

Members of the Homicide Unit, the Violent Crimes Task Force / Gang Group, the F.B.I., the SDPD Street Gang Unit and the District Attorney's Gang Prosecution Unit conducted an extensive investigation over the last several years, identifying 26-year-old Down Yang as a suspect in Mr. Su's murder. This morning, detectives charged Down Yang with one count of murder. Yang is currently in prison for an unrelated conviction.

This investigation has not concluded. Anyone with information is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
