ARREST MADE IN NORTH PARK MURDER

(San Diego) Earlier today at approximately 1:15 a.m., 27-year-old Miguel Leon-Fregoso was shot and killed in the east alley of 4600 30th Street. The motivation for this murder is unknown however initial investigation has revealed that the victim was murdered by a known assailant.

Throughout the day, homicide investigators spoke to witnesses and developed leads which eventually led them to the suspect's address at 1159 Elkelton Drive in the city of Spring Valley. Detectives initiated a surveillance of the address as well as the suspect's vehicle which was parked nearby. At about 2:15 p.m., the suspect identified as 25-year-old David Barron, exited his home and drove away on his motorcycle. Patrol officers initiated a traffic stop at which point Barron was arrested. A subsequent search warrant for Barron's residence was requested and granted by the courts. The details and/or results of the search warrant are not being provided at this time.

David Barron was transported to police headquarters for processing and questioning. At about 7:30 p.m. he was booked into County Jail on one count of murder.
