ARRESTS MADE IN EAST VILLAGE MURDER

(San Diego) San Diego Police Homicide Unit detectives have arrested three suspects in today's murder of a 50-year-old male.

Last night at about 8:00 p.m., the victim was involved in an argument with several other males in the 1200 block of "K" Street. The argument led to an assault, whereupon the victim sustained severe head and facial injuries. Paramedics transported the victim to a local hospital however he died from his injuries at 5:12 a.m. this morning.

Homicide Team V investigated the case and, with the assistance of witnesses and officers from Central Division, identified three suspects in the attack. Early this afternoon, all three suspects were located and arrested. They have been identified as Felipe Pineda 38-years-old, Edgar Cortez 21-years-old, and William Alfonso 19-years-old. The motivation for the murder remains unclear at this time. All three suspects are being processed at Police Headquarters, and will be booked into San Diego Central Jail for one count of murder.
