POLICE DISCOVER DECEASED NEWBORN IN RANCHO PENASQUITOS HOME

(San Diego) On July 30, 2008, at approximately 11:10 a.m., San Diego Police officers responded to a Rancho Penasquitos home to investigate a citizen's concerns that there may be a deceased infant at the residence.

Once at the residence, officers made contact with the occupants. One of the occupants of the residence, a thirty six-year-old female, directed officers to a bedroom of the residence and showed them the body of a deceased male newborn.

Detectives from the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit and Child Abuse Unit responded and initiated an investigation.

The female is being questioned regarding the circumstances of the infant's death.

Anyone with information about this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
