POLICE INVESTIGATE ASSAULT IN SCRIPPS RANCH

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating an assault in a Scripps Ranch home that has left a 56-year-old woman in grave condition and her 14-year-old daughter under arrest for the assault.

This morning, at 8:46 a.m., officers and paramedics were dispatched to the 10600 block of Canyon Lake Drive on a report of an injured woman. Paramedics found the victim lying on the kitchen floor suffering from blunt trauma to the head. The victim's 14-year-old daughter was detained inside the residence and was subsequently arrested for assaulting her mother.

The victim was transported to a trauma center, where she is in grave condition. The victim is not expected to survive.

The suspect is being processed at Headquarters prior to booking into Juvenile Hall.

At this time, neither the victim's nor the suspect's names will be released.

The motive for the attack is not known.
