SDPD Southeastern Division will host their annual Jerry Griffin toy giveaway for kids. The recipients have been pre-selected from among the residents of the Southeastern Division communities. About 150 kids will receive gifts from Santa Claus at the event. The kids range in age from 6 to 12, but there will be a few older and a few younger children invited.

 Santa Claus will make an appearance at this event. **

Mariachi singer and Southeastern Division detective Jaime Limon will perform at the event.

This event is not open to the public. The recipients have been pre-selected and the event is invitation only.

Media are invited to videotape this event.
