DEATH AT KATE SESSIONS PARK RULED SUICIDE

(San Diego) Early this morning, San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives were called to Kate Sessions Park located at 5000 Soledad Road, to investigate the death of an adult male.

The male victim (approximately 40 years old) was found by a passing citizen at about 7:00 a.m., as she was walking through the park. Blood located near the victim's body caused the citizen to call for police. Responding police officers and paramedics arrived a short time later and discovered that the victim was deceased. He was pronounced dead at 7:07 a.m.

The investigation has revealed that his death is the result of a self inflicted gunshot wound to the head. The victim, a resident of San Diego, has been identified but his name is being withheld pending the notification of family members. Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call the SDPD Homicide unit at (619) 531-2293.
