POLICE MAKE SECOND ARREST IN LINDA VISTA MURDER

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives have arrested a second suspect for the November 25, 2006 murder of 19-year-old Tien Phung in Linda Vista.

On November 26, 2006, Phung was shot in his car after leaving a party in the 6900 block of Eastman Street. He was placed on life support at a local hospital, but died of his wounds the next day. During the follow-up investigation, detectives identified Tung Danh (18) and Tam Vo (18) as suspects in Phung's death.

On December 8, 2006, Homicide and Gang Unit detectives served two search warrants in connection with the case and arrested Tam Vo for his role in Phung's murder.

This morning, homicide detectives arrested Tung Danh as he made an unrelated court appearance at the San Diego County Hall of Justice. Danh was booked into County Jail for murder, assault with a deadly weapon, and participation in a criminal street gang.
