Man Matching Sexual Assault Suspect Description Returns to Linda Vista Home SURVEILLANCE FOOTAGE CAPTURES IMAGE, POLICE SEEKING HELP IN IDENTIFYING MAN

San Diego – This morning, San Diego Police received a call about a man matching the description of a suspect from a sexual assault earlier this week returning to the same home.

On April 18, 2024, at 1:45 a.m., an unknown suspect entered a home located in the 2800 block of Wellington St. and sexually assaulted a girl. On April 21, at about 3:25 a.m., an unknown suspect matching the previous suspect description was seen on video surveillance footage returning to the same home and entering the property. He did not gain entry into the home, and no one was harmed.

The San Diego Police Department needs assistance in identifying the male (see images below). The suspect appears to be a Hispanic male adult in his early 20's with dark hair. He was seen wearing a dark hoodie sweatshirt with light printing down the left sleeve and an unknown image on the front of the hoodie. He was wearing light colored sweatpants and dark shoes. The suspect had a backpack and bicycle.

Anyone with information regarding this incident or video surveillance from the area is encouraged to call the Child Abuse Unit at (619) 531-2210 or SDPD non-emergency line at (619) 531-2000.
