WHAT IS THE LAND DEVELOPMENT CODE?

Chapters 11-14 of the Municipal Code are referred to as the Land Development Code. These chapters contain the City's planning, zoning, subdivision, and building regulations, with the exception of the planned district ordinance regulations, as discussed below. The Land Development Code is one of the tools used to implement the Progress Guide and General Plan and the community plans, which establish the pattern and intensity of land use throughout the City. You can look in more detail at the regulations of the Municipal Code at the following website: <http://clerkdoc.sannet.gov/Website/mc/mc.html>

FINDING INFORMATION IN THE LAND DEVELOPMENT CODE

Several tools have been incorporated into the Land Development Code to make the regulations easier to find and understand.

- The Land Development Code, like other parts of the Municipal Code, is organized by chapters, articles, divisions, and sections. All regulations in the Land Development Code are identified by a 7-digit number, which is referred to as the "section number." By reading the section number from left to right, you can tell in which chapter, article, and division the section is located.

EXAMPLE

- Chapters have been organized by topic, with Chapters 11 and 12 providing the procedures for review and approval of applications for development, and Chapters 13 and 14 providing the regulations that govern the use, design, and construction of buildings. A more detailed outline of the chapters is provided below.

- Pages in the Land Development Code are numbered differently than other parts of the Municipal Code. At the bottom of each page is a box that provides the chapter, article, and division number, as well as the page number. Pages are numbered by division.

HOW TO FIND THE ZONING REGULATIONS FOR YOUR PROPERTY

The first step in determining the zoning regulations that apply to your property is to find your site on the Official Zoning Maps. These maps show the base zones for all private property in the City. The Official Zoning Map is a DRAFT until approved by the City Council, anticipated sometime in 2005.

After you've determined in which base zone your property is located, refer to Chapter 13, Article 1 to find the permitted uses and the applicable development regulations as described in the sections below.

HOW TO DETERMINE WHAT USES ARE ALLOWED ON YOUR PROPERTY

Look in Chapter 13, Article 1, Divisions I-6 to find the uses permitted in each base zone. Divisions 2-6 contain a use regulations table that lists the permitted uses for each zone, those that are allowed with specified limitations, and those that require a use permit.

The tables do not list every use that may be allowed in each zone; they identify use categories and subcategories, which are groups of uses that have similar physical or operating characteristics. In the example of the use regulations table on Page 7, the table shows the use categories of "Vehicle & Vehicular Equipment Sales & Service", "Wholesale, Distribution, Storage", and "Industrial". Subcategories are listed for each of these categories. Descriptions of the use categories and subcategories are provided in Chapter 13, Article 1, Division 1. If you are unsure what use category or subcategory a particular use would be in, review the descriptions in Division 1.

Chapter 13 ZONES
Article 1	Base Zones
Division 1	General Rules for Base Zones
Division 2	Open Space Base Zones
Division 3	Agricultural Base Zones
Division 4	Residential Base Zones
Division 5	Commercial Base Zones
Division 6	Industrial Base Zones

Some uses that are allowed in certain base zones may be accessory uses in other zones. The regulations for accessory uses are in Chapter 13, Article 1, in the section titled "Additional Use Regulations" for the base zone.

A portion of the use regulations table from the commercial zones is shown above. This example shows the CN-1-1, CN-1-2, CN-1-3, CR-1-1, CR-2-1, CO-1-1, CO-1-2, CV-1-1, CV-1-2 and CP-1-1 zones.

To find the uses allowed on your property, first find your zone category (the 1st and 2nd designators) and use package (the 3rd designator) in the column headings. (The 4th designator shows the development regulations packages that apply in each zone.) Next, look at the use categories and subcategories in the left-hand column to find the uses that are allowed in each zone. The tables indicate allowed uses in four ways:

"P" indicates that the use is permitted by right, which means that no additional review or action by the City is required for this use to occur, other than the processing of construction permits.

"L" indicates that the use is permitted with limitations. The limitations may consist of minimum development standards, restrictions on operations, or other supplemental regulations. These supplemental regulations are in Chapter 14, Article 1 (Separately Regulated Use Regulations).

"N" indicates that the use requires approval of a Neighborhood Use Permit (NUP). NUPs are required for those uses that have the potential for limited, identifiable impacts on surrounding development within the immediate area. Uses requiring an NUP may be permitted in accordance with Process Two. The procedure for obtaining an NUP is described in Chapter 12, Article 6, Divisions 1 and 2. The development regulations for NUPs are in Chapter 14, Article 1.

"C" indicates that the use requires approval of a Conditional Use Permit (CUP). CUPs are required for those uses that have the potential for significant impacts on surrounding development within a wide area. Uses requiring a CUP may be permitted in accordance with Process Three, Process Four, or Process Five. The procedure for obtaining a CUP is described in Chapter 12, Article 6, Divisions 1 and 3. The development regulations for CUPs are in Chapter 14, Article 1. The decision process for each use is also identified in Chapter 14, Article 1.

A use category or subcategory that is not permitted (not allowable) is shown as “-”.

HOW TO FIND THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE SIZE AND SCALE OF DEVELOPMENT

Look in Chapter 13, Article 1, Divisions 2-6 to find the basic development regulations that govern the size and scale of development such as permitted density, requirements for lot size, setbacks, and structure height. Each division contains a development regulations table that lists the basic development regulations for each base zone. The tables also refer to other sections in the Land Development Code that contain additional regulations that are applicable in the base zone.

Chapter 13 ZONES
Article 1	Base Zones
Division 1	General Rules for Base Zones
Division 2	Open Space Base Zones
Division 3	Agricultural Base Zones
Division 4	Residential Base Zones
Division 5	Commercial Base Zones
Division 6	Industrial Base Zones

The development regulations tables for each type of zone are set up with a parallel structure to make finding the applicable regulations and comparing regulations among zones easier.

A section of the development regulations table from the commercial zones is shown below. This example shows the CR-1-1, CR-2-1, CO-1-1, CO-1-2, CV1-1, CV-1-2 and CP-1-1 zones.

To find the regulations for your property, first find your zone category (the 1st and 2nd designators) and development regulations package (the 4th designator) in the column headings. (The 3rd designator shows the use regulations packages that apply in each zone.) Next, look at the left-hand column to find the regulations for lot area, lot dimensions, setbacks, height, etc.

In most cases the regulation will be specified in the table. In some cases the left-hand column of the table will contain a reference to another section in the Land Development Code (see "Supplemental residential regulations" for example). The referenced section will provide additional regulations or clarification on the circumstances in which the regulations apply.

If a footnote number is shown in the cells containing the regulation (see "Setback requirements" for example), the footnotes at the end of the table will provide additional regulations or provide the code section that contains the additional regulations.

ZONE CONVERSION CHART

On the effective date of the Land Development Code, all zones that were established in Municipal Code Chapter 10, Article 1, Division 4 will be amended and replaced with the zones established in Chapter 13, Article 1 (Base Zone) and Article 2 (Overlay Zones). The tables below list the Chapter 10 zones and the replacement Chapter 13 zones. Where “no existing zone” is shown below, that Chapter 13 Zone has not been applied anywhere in the City. Where “no proposed zone” is shown below, that old zone had been repealed and also will not appear anywhere on the official zoning map. Note: overlay zones are mapped separately from the Official Zoning Map for base zones.
