

Prop A – Amends City Charter related to Elections – FINAL

This measure would establish the inauguration date of newly elected Councilmembers and Mayors in San Diego as the December 10th following their elections, and would allow 90 days between primary and run-off elections. Adoption of this measure would have no fiscal impact on the City.