Minutes approved: Kody moved; Frank 2nd. Unanimous approval

Police report: None. Marc has reached out to SDPD regarding some issues facing Valley occupants, requesting a representative to attend our meeting. No response

Guest: Joe Levanthal, a candidate for City Council, gave a brief bio and particular interest in Valley

Guest: Brian Swanson, new property lease agent. He will be involved in renewing leases

Guest: Quinton Pounds, city staff. Happy to see brush removal project being implemented and reported new long term lease to West Coast Turf being renewed. Marc mentioned, while appreciating cleaning up of roadside, flooding became worse and suggested that be remedied.

PUD: Sandra, chair of SGMA agency, reported on committee having been completed. Meeting quarterly, Public Welcome.

Guest: Hannah Gbeh, new Executive Director of San Diego Co Farm Bureau. She recited her vast experience in serving Agricultural Interest and Business. They are well aware of dangerous Animal Rights Activists in our agricultural business/interest and working diligently to address the growing problem. Also, the impediment to farming is SGMA and has already severely impacted farms in CA.

The issue of Guejito Vineyard growing events is having an impact on our traffic as they are parking illegally on major hwy. Marc cited the likelihood of impaired drivers as a result. Marc would like to invite the owner of winery to visit our meetings, with the hope of working together.

Marc is sitting on Ag Advisory Board for Escondido Schools and invited for ag individuals to serve as a pathway to students to help these programs survive.

Move to adjourn, Frank; Tom 2nd Meeting adjourned 7:53
