Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Chinese community in San Diego is about to celebrate the Chinese New Year of the Year 4672; and

WHEREAS, Chinese Year of the Tiger begins on January 23, 1974, and will be observed with a two-week celebration by the Chinese community in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the Year of the Tiger, according to an ancient horoscope, gives four principles for all to follow: shopkeepers pledge honest dealing with the public and employees pledge faithful services; farmers pledge to produce more food; scholars pledge to better society; and heads of state pledge to keep peace and to care for the aged and aid the less fortunate; and

WHEREAS, according to the Chinese horoscope for the Year of the Tiger, if people will rededicate themselves to these principles the world will be a better place in which to live in 1974;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, PETE WILSON, the Twenty-ninth Mayor of the City of San Diego, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, January 23, 1974, as "CHINESE NEW YEAR OBSERVANCE DAY" in San Diego, and I extend my best wishes to our Chinese community as we enter the Year of the Tiger of the Year 4672.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my Hand, this Twenty-first Day of December, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-three, and have caused the Seal to be affixed hereto:
