

Sunset Options

Option #1

Section 255: Operative Date; Sunset of Article; Future Action by Voters

(a) The date for the provisions of this Article to become operative is January 1, 2006.

(b) After January 1, 2006, the provisions of this Article shall remain in effect for a period of five years (until December 31, 2010) at which time the question of whether or not this form of governance shall be made permanent must be placed on the 2010 primary ballot. However, the Council and the people reserve the right to propose amendments to the Charter before the primary 2010 election to extend, make permanent, shorten or repeal the effective period of this Article and to consider increasing the number of Council districts to nine at the time of the next City Council district reapportionment which follows the national decennial census in 2010.

(Added by vote on 11-02-2004; effective 01-01-2006.)

Option #2

Section 255: Operative Date; Sunset of Article; Future Action by Voters

(a) The date for the provisions of this Article to become operative is January 1, 2006.

(b) After January 1, 2006, the provisions of this Article shall remain in effect for a period of seven years (until December 31, 2012) at which time this Article shall be automatically repealed and removed from the Charter. However, the Council and the people reserve the right to propose amendments to the Charter at the November 2012 election or sooner to extend, make permanent, shorten or repeal the effective period of this Article and to consider increasing the number of Council districts to nine at the time of the next City Council district reapportionment which follows the national decennial census in 2010.

(Added by vote on 11-02-2004; effective 01-01-2006.)

Option #3

Section 255: Operative Date; Sunset of Article; Future Action by Voters

(a) The date for the provisions of this Article to become operative is January 1, 2006.

(b) After January 1, 2006, the provisions of this Article shall remain in effect for a period of five years (until December 31, 2010) at which time this Article shall be made permanent unless the Council should propose to place a measure on the ballot repealing the Article or lengthening the trial period. However, the Council and the people reserve the right to propose amendments to the Charter at the November 2010 election or sooner to extend, make permanent, shorten or repeal the effective period of this Article and to consider increasing the number of Council districts to nine at the time of the next City Council district reapportionment which follows the national decennial census in 2010.
