Dear Friend,

My wife Janet and I have made San Diego our home. We are deeply involved in the community. Walking door-to-door, we hear the same message: You want strong representation. You know me as an independent leader. I won't be afraid to make waves at City Hall if that's what it takes to protect our community.
I sincerely appreciate your vote.

Peter Navarro

CONSOLIDATED ELECTION - NOVEMBER 2, 1993 - SAN DIEGO COUNTY
OFFICIAL BALLOT

CITY OF SAN DIEGO

Vote for One

MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL 3RD DISTRICT	CHRISTINE KEHOE Economic/Community Development Specialist	28 → ○
	EVONNE SCHULZE Community College Board Member	29 → ○

SAN DIEGO CITY COUNCIL
District No. 3

CHRISTINE KEHOE
Economic/Community Development Specialist
Endorsed by San Diego
Police Officers Association

New Experienced Leadership

Kehoe has hands-on experience with district issues while serving as key assistant to a city councilman. Kehoe worked daily with district residents and their concerns, including graffiti, single family neighborhood protection, and crime prevention.

Speak To Christine Directly

Call and speak to Christine directly at her home – [REDACTED]. Kehoe will keep open office hours and stay accessible to constituents.

District Homeowner

Kehoe is a district home owner who personally understands how crime, graffiti and drug problems harm neighborhoods. As a councilmember, she will make sure all neighborhoods get the help they need from City Hall.

Kehoe's Crime Fighting Plan

Fighting crime is Christine Kehoe's number one priority. She has a plan to pay for new police at no additional cost to taxpayers. Kehoe will work to change penalties for crimes such as graffiti and make it easier for the police to cite violators. She believes gang members should receive maximum penalties for crimes committed.

More Police

Kehoe strongly supports the plan requiring the city to add 92 police officers each year for eight years.

Vote Christine Kehoe – Primary Election Winner – Top Vote Getter.

SAN DIEGO CITY COUNCIL
District No. 3

EVONNE SCHULZE
Community College
Board Member

PROUD TO BE ENDORSED BY SAN DIEGO FIREFIGHTERS, MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES,
AND NEIGHBORHOOD LEADERS THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT

TAKE BACK OUR NEIGHBORHOODS!

- Politicians talk about fighting crime, but continuation of their failed leadership is not the answer.
- Additional police officers, expanded Neighborhood Watch programs, well-trained Citizen Patrols, and a new spirit of cooperation are the answers.

RESTORE NEIGHBORHOOD PRIDE!

- Make absentee landlords accountable for crime and blight.
- Absolutely no further high-density development in our district.
- Cut red tape, improve street lighting, sidewalk and street repair for local businesses. Jobs and the economy are a top priority.

CHILDREN ARE OUR FUTURE!

- Open schools after classes as neighborhood centers with recreation, child care and community service.
- Get tough with gangs and drug dealers by enforcing curfew, truancy, and drug abatement laws.

EXPERIENCE – NO MORE ON-THE-JOB TRAINING!

- Elected to San Diego Community College Board as Mid City's representative, receiving over 72% of the vote.
- Formerly President of the Ecology Center, Chief of Staff to our State Assemblymember.
- Northwestern University, Bachelor's Degree; San Diego State University, Graduate Fellowship.
- Resident of University Heights; sons graduated from Crawford High – eldest a small business owner in Mid City; youngest a physician.
