Tips for Parents

- Talk with your children.
- Know where your child is, and the people they spend time with.
- Screen baby-sitters, coaches and other care-givers.
- Be sensitive to changes in your child's behavior.

More tips

- Listen you your children and pay attention if they don't want to be with someone.
- Notice anyone who provides or gives special favors to your child.
- Tell you children that it is always wrong for adults to engage children in sexual activity.
- Teach your children they can say NO to anything that makes them uncomfortable.

More tips

- Remember that 90% of the time a child who is molested, is molested by someone they know...focus on people you know as well as “stranger danger.”
- Knowledge is power – teach your children about their bodies and their right to control their private parts.

ADVICE FOR EVERYONE

Trust your instincts !

If a person or situation is making you uncomfortable, get away, even at the risk of appearing rude.

Thank you.
