When is an Elevator or Ramp Required?

California Building Code Section 1103B

Is the Building a Publicly Funded Building?

- NO
  - Is the Building a Medical Office?
    - NO
      - Is the Building a Shopping Center?
        - NO
          - Is the Building <3000 sq ft/story?
            - NO
              - ELEVATOR OR RAMP IS REQUIRED
            - YES
              - ELEVATOR OR RAMP IS REQUIRED
        - YES
          - Are reasonable portions of all facilities and accommodations normally sought and used by the public in such a building accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities?
            - YES
              - ELEVATOR OR RAMP IS REQUIRED
            - NO
              - Elevator or Ramp is NOT Required
    - YES
      - ELEVATOR OR RAMP IS REQUIRED

Is the Building an Office Building?

- NO
  - Is the Building A Vehicle Service Center?
    - YES
      - Elevator or Ramp is NOT Required
    - NO
      - Are reasonable portions of all facilities and accommodations normally sought and used by the public in such a building accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities?
        - YES
          - Elevator or Ramp is NOT Required
        - NO
          - ELEVATOR OR RAMP IS REQUIRED
  - YES
    - Elevator or Ramp is NOT Required

1222 First Avenue, San Diego, CA 92101 (619) 446-5000 email: dsdweb@sandiego.gov

Revised 5/18/06