4. Action Agenda

Item A:

Goal 5: Make policy recommendations to the Mayor and City Council on issues of gang prevention, intervention, diversion and suppression methods; identify local, state and federal funding sources, and identify best practice efforts.

5.2 Update its Strategic Action plan

The Commission established priorities to facilitate and to initiate a Strategic Action Plan every 2 years. Attached is a summary of the current Workplan. It is now time to begin the work on 3rd Strategic Action plan. Resources for this plan will include the community concerns, ideas collected from the Gang Prevention Summit, and research done by the Children's initiative, the Advancement project in Los Angeles, the 13 Cities Network, SANDAG and the Prevention Institute.

Recommended Action:

Establish an Ad Hoc Committee to report in July on a draft Action Plan.

Item B

Goal 1: Establish an effective coordinated collaboration process to impact Gang Activity citywide

1.1 Multiple Strategies are needed to address gang prevention

Social Media is multi dimensional medium. The San Diego Police Department has been aggressive in educating the community about online bullying. Over the past year the community has seen more use by youth for fighting, gang postings. Jon Moffat has been working at the Vista Clinic and Kurt Smith has been working with the Anti Gang Task Force on this issue.
