
PREFACE

On July 1, 1982, the City Planning Commission of the City of San Diego unanimously approved the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 3914. The Commission also considered the findings for it by Resolution No. 3913, and recommended amendment of the General Plan by Resolution No. 3915.

On August 10, 1982, the City Council of the City of San Diego unanimously adopted the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 256968, the Council certified the information contained in the Environmental Impact Report for compliance with the California Environmental Quality Act of 1970, and, by Resolution No. 256970, adopted the findings for the EIR.

On November 1, 1982, the Council unanimously adopted an amendment to the Sabre Springs Community Plan relative to the Northridge Industrial Area, by Resolution No. 257427. By Resolution No. 257426, the Council also certified the information contained in the Environmental Impact Report and, by Resolution No. 257428, adopted the findings for the EIR.

On September 29, 1987, the Council unanimously adopted a comprehensive amendment to the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 269394. By Resolution No. 269393, the Council also certified the information contained in the Environmental Impact Report Addendum.

On December 13, 1988, the Council unanimously adopted an amendment affecting park and ride lots and reconfiguring the shape of several parcels within the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 272583. By Resolution No. 272582, the Council certified the Negative Declaration issued for the amendment.

On October 8, 1991, the Council unanimously adopted an amendment affecting park and ride lots and reconfiguring the shape of several parcels within the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 278811. By Resolution No. 272810, the Council certified the Negative Declaration issued for the amendment.

On November 21, 1995, the Council unanimously adopted an amendment making land use changes on undeveloped parcels, shifting density among parcels, and revising the phasing program within the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution No. 286616. By Resolution No. 286615, the Council certified the Negative Declaration issued for the amendment.

On August 4, 1998, the City Council unanimously adopted an amendment reducing the total number of dwelling units to be built within Sabre Springs, altering some land uses and densities, and revising the phasing program within the Sabre Springs Community Plan by Resolution 290593. By Resolution No. 290592, the Council certified the Mitigated Negative Declaration issued for the amendment.