DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIM AND SUSPECT SOUGHT

(San Diego) SDPD Domestic Violence and Robbery detectives are asking for assistance from the public in locating the suspect and victim of a domestic violence case that occurred at about 9:30 this morning in the Ocean Crest neighborhood of South San Diego.

Veronica Valencia Gonzalez, also known as Veronica Campos, 23, was with her current boyfriend in his home when her former boyfriend, Roberto De Alba arrived and entered the home. De Alba assaulted Campos' boyfriend and Campos before kidnapping her from the residence.

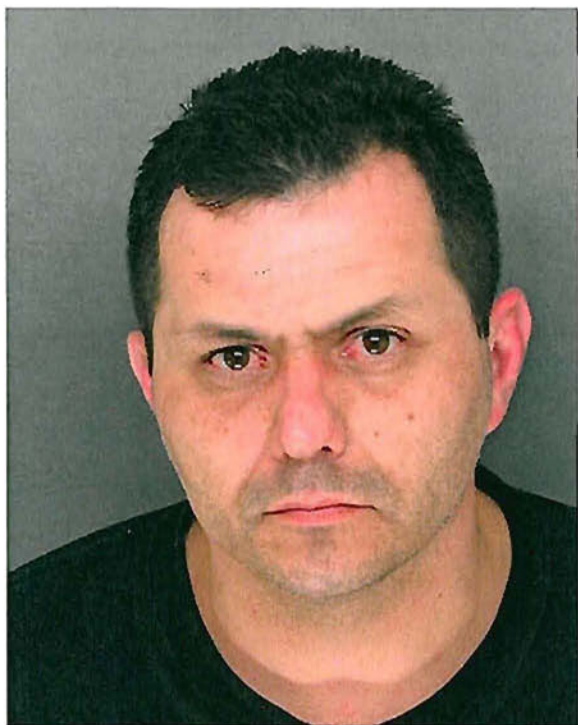

De Alba is a Hispanic male, DOB 8/31/68, 5'7" tall, 195 lbs, brown hair and brown eyes. He is known to drive a silver 2006 Dodge Durango with a California license plate of 5PYL036. He was accompanied by a Hispanic male but we have no description on the second male suspect.

The victim, Campos, is a Hispanic female, 5'2" 90 lbs, possibly wearing a sweatshirt and jeans. A photo of both the suspect and the victim can be found on page two and three of this news release.

De Alba frequents the South Bay area of San Diego but has no permanent residence. He is wanted for kidnap, assault with a deadly weapon and domestic violence charges.

Anyone with information on the location of this suspect or victim should call the Crime Stoppers anonymous toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS or the SDPD dispatch center at (619) 531-2000. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest in this case.
