POLICE INVESTIGATE SUSPICIOUS DEATH IN EAST VILLAGE

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the death of a female in an East Village apartment.

At 4:19 a.m., a male called SDPD Communications to report his wife dead inside an apartment in the 1200 block of Market Street. Officers learned the woman had been dead for several days before the husband decided to call police.

The cause and manner of the woman's death are undetermined at this time. Detectives obtained a search warrant and are processing the apartment for evidence.

The decedent, 33, has been identified, but her name is being withheld pending additional family notification.

The husband will be booked into County Jail for violation of a restraining order and parole violation.
