SHOOTING SUSPECT SOUGHT; COMPOSITE INCLUDED

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Northern Division detectives are asking for assistance from the public in identifying a suspect in a shooting that happened in the early morning hours of Monday, September 17, 2007.

At about 2 a.m. the male victim was walking south on Mission Boulevard when he and his companions saw a fight in front of Ramiro's Taco shop, located at 4525 Mission Boulevard. Some members of the victim's group helped break up the fight. The victim and his companions continued walking east on Garnet Avenue where they were confronted by the suspect in the 900 block of Garnet. The suspect yelled, "Who pushed me?" pointed a gun at the victim and fired three shots. The suspect fled on foot going west on Garnet Avenue.

The suspect is described as an Asian male, 5'8" to 5'11" 150 to 170 pounds, slim build, dark brown hair that was flat on the sides and spiked on top. He was wearing a blue shirt, baggy pants and a black fingerless glove on his right hand. The suspect fled in an awaiting dark-colored Chevy S10 pick up truck driven by a male. The weapon used was a black semi-automatic handgun.

A composite sketch of the suspect is included on page two of this news release. Anyone with information about the incident or the identity of the suspect is encouraged to contact Detective Dana Hoover at (858) 552-1752.

If you wish to remain anonymous, you can call the Crime Stoppers anonymous, toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS. You could earn a reward of up to $1000 for information that leads to an arrest in this case.
