IDENTITY THEFT SUSPECT SOUGHT

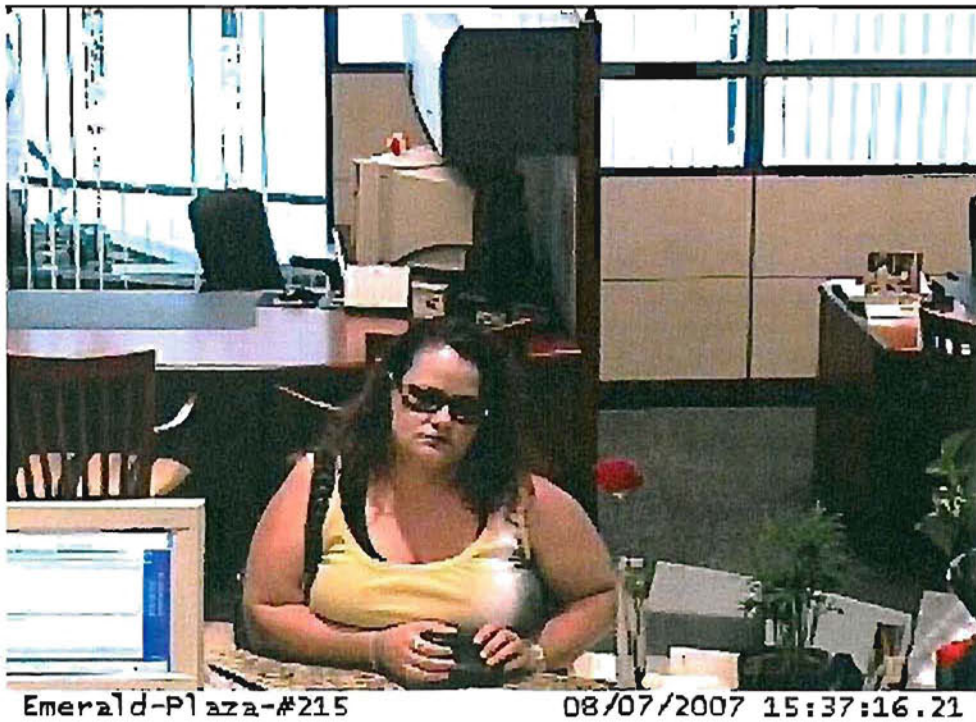

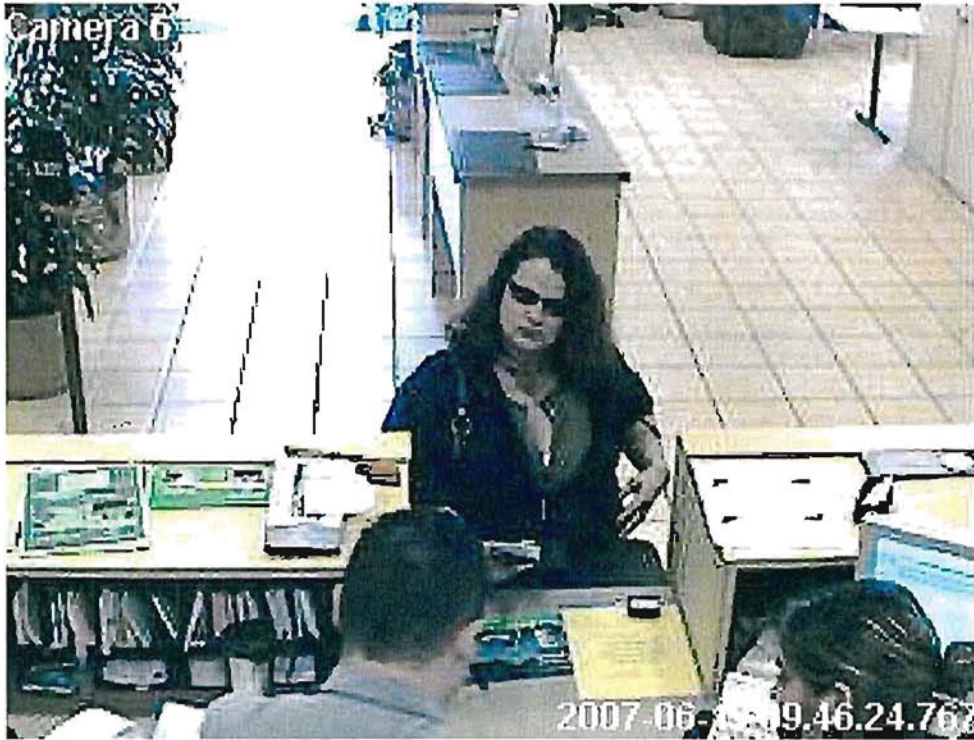

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Financial Crimes detectives are seeking the public's assistance in locating the suspect in a string of identity theft cases at local banks. The suspect pictured on page two is Dawn Marie Williams who is responsible for five separate cases of identity theft, false personation and check fraud against five local banks.

The crimes occurred between July 16 and the end of August. Williams used identifications and personal information stolen from the residences, vehicles or purses of the victims. Williams has passed in excess of 23 counterfeit checks and has assumed the identity of three separate victims.

Williams is a white female, 39, 5'2" - 5'5" and 180 - 200 lbs, heavysset, with brown or black curly hair-parted on the right side. She was wearing sunglasses during each crime.

Anyone with information about these incidents or the suspect's whereabouts is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department Financial Crimes Unit at (619) 446-1031 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous, toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS. By calling Crime Stoppers you can remain anonymous and could be eligible for a reward of up to $1000 if your information leads to an arrest in this case.
