The 2008 Rock 'N' Roll Marathon is set for Sunday, June 1, 2008 at 6:25 a.m. There are many streets and freeways that will be closed as a result of the race. The closures will take effect at midnight on the night before the race and, in some cases, remain in effect until 3 p.m. on June 1. A detailed list of road closures; alternate suggested routes; affected areas and access routes can be found by visiting www.RnRmarathon.com.

Please be aware that posted tow away zones and no parking areas will be strictly enforced. It is important for residents to pay close attention to signs that will be posted in their neighborhoods.

SDPD will have special event traffic controllers, patrol officers and motor officers assisting in making sure the event is safe and enjoyable for participants as well as spectators.
