INDECENT EXPOSURE SUSPECT ARRESTED

(San Diego) On Thursday, June 18, 2009 SDPD Southeastern Division officers arrested 21-year-old Daniel Nestor Ortega (DOB 6/20/87) for indecent exposure. Ortega was arrested in the 6400 block of Akins Avenue in Encanto at about 2 p.m. yesterday and was booked on two counts of indecent exposure (314.1 PC).

Thursday at about 11:30 a.m., a 17-year-old female was walking in the area of 65th Street and Akins Avenue when a Hispanic male in a blue van approached her. The male asked her for directions and exposed himself to the victim. The victim ran home and called police.

The victim provided a detailed description of the suspect and the suspect vehicle, including a partial license plate number. The suspect's vehicle is a blue 1992 Toyota Previa mini-van. Armed with this information, Southeastern Division officers searched the area and located the suspect and his vehicle.

Based upon interviews with the suspect and several victims, detectives were able to determine that Ortega is believed responsible for 13 cases of indecent exposure which occurred in recent months. This investigation is ongoing and detectives are interested in talking with those who may have been victims of Ortega but have not yet come forward. If you believe you have been a victim of this suspect, you are asked to call SDPD Southeastern Division at (619) 527-3500.
