San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with the San Diego Police Department's Elder Abuse Unit to help apprehend the suspect responsible for a serious assault case that occurred on November 12, 2009 in Clairemont Mesa.

*At about 3:30 p.m. a 69-year-old man was removing old posters from around his neighborhood when a male in a black two-door car drove up. The man began cussing at and approaching the victim. The suspect is a white male, about 25, 6' 165 – 175 lbs He had tattoos on his arms and possibly on his neck; he may have pierced ears and was wearing a white shirt. The victim believes there was a lot of yellow in the tattoos.
