(January 14, 2009) – A North County couple who came to the aide of a stabbing victim at great risk to their own personal safety, are among the six people who will be honored Thursday (January 15) as local heroes by the heads of the three largest local law enforcement agencies in San Diego County.

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of San Diego, the 18th Annual Law Enforcement Salute to Local Heroes recognizes average citizens who have performed courageous deeds that assisted fellow citizens and/or law enforcement. Presenting the awards will be San Diego Police Chief Bill Lansdowne, District Attorney Bonnie M. Dumanis and Sheriff Bill Kolender.

The honorees are:
