DETECTIVES INVESTIGATE LA JOLLA SEXUAL ASSAULT AND HOT PROWL BURGLARY

(San Diego) San Diego Police Sex Crimes Unit detectives are investigating the assault of a twenty-two year old woman that occurred inside her La Jolla residence in the early morning hours on Wednesday, August 11, 2010.

During the evening of Tuesday, August 10, 2010, the victim and several of her roommates were socializing at a beach near their home. The two suspects, Bryan Silva and Xavzier Paschal, joined the group. The victim and her roommates eventually went home, leaving Silva and Paschal at the beach.

At approximately, 4:05 a.m. this morning, one of the victim's roommates was awakened by a black male, whom he recognized from the beach as Paschal, in his room. When challenged by the roommate, Paschal ran out of the residence. As the roommate was chasing Paschal, he noticed Silva was also inside the house. Paschal and Silva got into a car and fled the scene. The victim told her roommates that she had been sexually assaulted by Silva.

Officers responding to the scene located Paschal and Silva a short distance away.

Suspect Bryan Silva, is a white male, 20 years old. He was arrested and booked into jail for first degree burglary and sexual assault with a foreign object. Suspect Xavzier Paschal is a black male, 21 years old. He was arrested and booked in jail for first degree burglary. Both are scheduled for arraignment on Friday, August 13, 2010 at 1:30 p.m.

Sex Crimes Unit detectives are continuing to investigate the case.

Lieutenant O'Hanlon will be available for interviews in front of SDPD headquarters at 5:30 p.m. this afternoon.
