CITY SERVICES

Individuals with personal or family problems need to get help before problems get out of hand and cause further difficulties. Two problems that are most prevalent in society are substance abuse and domestic violence. Some resources that provide referrals and help with these and other problems are mentioned below. Help in conflict resolution can be obtained from various mediation services. Persons who are victims or witnesses of crimes can get help from the San Diego County District Attorney's Victim/Witness Assistance Program at (619) 531-4041. General information about City services can be obtained by calling the City Information Center at (619) 236-5555 Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG ABUSE

Individuals needing help with alcohol and drug abuse problems should call the County Health and Human Services Agency's Behavioral Health Services toll-free hotline at (888) 724-7240 to get a list of organizations in their area that have treatment programs. Free material on the effects, prevention, and treatment of alcohol and drug abuse can be obtained by calling the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information at (800) 729-6686 or searching the Internet website of the Office of National Drug Control Policy at www.whitehousedrugpolicy.gov. Another source of information is The Resource Center of the State of California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs. It can be reached at (800) 879-2772 or www.adp.cahwnet.gov on the Internet.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

San Diego County, in partnership with the Center for Community Solutions, now has a 24/7 Domestic Violence Hotline that provides crisis counseling, safety planning, referrals to various service agencies, and information on shelter bed availability, restraining orders and other legal aid, etc. The toll-free number is (888) 385-4657. Persons with existing domestic violence problems or cases should call the San Diego Family Justice Center's Domestic Violence Info Line at (619) 533-6000 for assistance. That line is staffed Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Answers to many questions about domestic violence are contained in a consumer education pamphlet entitled Can the Law Protect Me from Domestic Violence? published by the State Bar of California. It is also on the Bar's website at www.calbar.ca.gov. It and other pamphlets listed in Sec. 5.c below can be ordered by calling (888) 875-5297.

OTHER PROBLEMS.

You can now call 211, the new 24/7 national dialing code for information and referrals about community, health, and disaster services. Information is available on addictions, child care, clothing, counseling, domestic violence, employment, food, housing, legal assistance, parenting, senior services, sexual assault, shelters, youth and teen services, and many other topics. This information is also online at www.211SanDiego.org.

For immediate assistance on mental health problems you can also call the San Diego County Health and Human Services Agency's Behavioral Health Services' toll-free hotline line at (888) 724-7240. Professional counselors are available 24/7 to help callers through their crises and refer them to appropriate services. Counseling is available in Spanish and other languages.

Another source of information is the set of eight single-issue pamphlets for consumers who are seeking legal advice or have a problem with their attorney. They are published by the State Bar and can be read on its website in English and Spanish at www.calbar.ca.gov by clicking on Pamphlets in the left-hand menu and then on the title of the pamphlet of interest. These pamphlets deal with the following issues:

- Finding the Right Lawyer
- A Lawyer Referral Service Can Help You
- Having a Fee Dispute with Your Lawyer?
- Having a Problem with Your Lawyer?
- The Client Security Fund Can Help You
- Do I Need a Will?
- Do I Need Estate Planning?
- Do I Need a Living Trust?

The first three titles are also available in print along with Kids & the Law: An A-to-Z Guide for Parents, Seniors & the Law: A Guide for Maturing Californians, and When You Turn 18: A Survival Guide for Teenagers. Click on "order form page" to order copies. Those who don't have access to the Internet may call (888) 875-5297 to order copies.

Free legal assistance for seniors 60 and older in San Diego County can be obtained from the Senior Citizens Legal Services Program of Elder Law and Advocacy. Staff attorneys travel to community outreach sites on regular monthly schedules. Call (858) 565-1392 for an appointment. And for the latest elder-care news and information, visit www.sandiegoeldercare.com.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Many personal and family problems can be resolved through mediation. By California law aimed at reducing court caseloads, the initial mediation sessions are free of charge. One organization you can call to negotiate restitution and resolve conflicts between victims and offenders arising from property crimes like theft, vandalism, burglary, and trespass is the San Diego Restorative Justice Mediation Program at (619) 280-1993. It also deals with conflicts between family members, e.g., parent-child. Mediation provides an opportunity for frustrated parents, unhappy children, and troubled families to talk about the things that bother them, set goals, and work out agreements to help them get along better.

To resolve civil disputes involving neighbors, landlords and tenants, family members (divorce and parent-child), businesses, etc., you can call the National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC) at (619) 238-2400 or go to its website at www.ncrconline.com to open a case. A case coordinator will call you within 24 hours to gather information about your case. The NCRC mediates disputes free of charge through funding by the County of San Diego.

To deal with parent-child problems, the NCRC lists the following reasons to consider mediation:

- It's different from therapy.
- No one tells you what to do.
- What everyone has to say is important.

- Each person is listened to with respect.
- It works for 90 percent of the parents and teens who try it.
- Your family controls the outcome by forming agreements that work for those involved.
- It can prevent disputes from escalating to violence.
- It's confidential. No one reports anything that is said in mediation.
- You have nothing to lose.

CRIME VICTIM/WITNESS ASSISTANCE

Help in getting emergency funds, financial assistance from the California Victim Compensation Program (CalVCP), and referrals to other agencies that provide assistance can be obtained from the San Diego County District Attorney's Victim Witness Assistance Center at (619) 531-4041. Information about CalVCP can be obtained online at www.calvcp.ca.gov or by calling (800) 777-9229. Answers to frequently asked questions about being a crime victim are provided in a consumer education pamphlet entitled What Should I Do If I Am a Crime Victim? published by the State Bar. The text is available on the State Bar's website at www.calbar.ca.gov by clicking on Consumer Education in the left-hand menu and then on Legal Information, Criminal Justice, and then its title.
