MAYOR BOB FILNER OPENS DOORS OF CITY HALL ON SATURDAY TO SAN DIEGANS

(San Diego) -- Mayor Bob Filner spent Saturday morning with the citizens of San Diego. He took up shop in the lobby of City Hall to answer questions, listen to ideas, suggestions, problems and concerns from anyone who wanted to stop by.

“It is very important to me to be available to the people I work for, to give them a voice about what is important to them. I want people to feel comfortable coming to talk to me and to know I am accessible. Together we can continue to make our City great.”

The Mayor’s staff was on hand taking down information from people who stopped by for follow up on the issues discussed with the Mayor.

This is the first Saturday session as promised by the Mayor during his campaign. The Mayor will be available to talk to anyone who wants to stop by City Hall on the first Saturday of every month from 9:30 a.m. to noon.
