Mayor Bob Filner: Earth Fair 2013 is Back at Historic Location

(San Diego) -- Mayor Bob Filner is pleased to announce that Earth Fair 2013 will now be held at its original, historic location after the recent ruling on the Plaza de Panama project.

“Initially, the City offered a permit for a different location at Balboa Park for Earth Fair 2013 because of safety concerns of the planned construction project. But in light of the ruling on Plaza de Panama, that is no longer a concern and I am happy to announce Earth Fair 2013 will occur in the heart of the park, once their permit is complete. I love the Earth Fair! I am looking forward to celebrating with all San Diegans.”
