

The San Diego Public Library

Media Arts Center San Diego and the San Diego Public Library present

Off and Running

by Nicole Opper

The story of Brooklyn track star with a bright future. Avery is the adopted African-American child of white Jewish lesbians. Her older brother is black and Puerto Rican and her younger brother is Korean. Though it may not look typical, Avery's household is like most American homes — until she writes to her birth mother and the response throws her into crisis.

Photo: Jacob Okada

FREE (First come, first served seating)
6:30 pm, Monday, September 13
San Diego Public Library Auditorium--3rd floor
820 E Street--San Diego

This event is a collaboration with P.O.V., PBS' award-winning nonfiction film series.
www.pbs.org/pov

This information will be made available in alternative formats upon request.

film screenings

2010

www.sandiegolibrary.org