Entre Nous Showcase to Spotlight Hidden Creative Talents of San Diego Public Library Staff

The Multi-Event Program will Take Place through July 2006

SAN DIEGO – A major, nine-month program by the City of San Diego Public Library will spotlight the artistic abilities of the Library’s multitalented and creative staff. “Entre Nous Showcase” will be a series of performing and visual art events featuring music concerts, dance performances, and art and poetry presentations.

San Diego residents can enjoy not only a great evening of entertainment, but also learn more about the people who work in their neighborhood libraries. The program will create bridges of understanding between library patrons, their libraries and the larger San Diego metropolitan community served by the Library.

The staff of the San Diego Public Library includes concert level musicians, dance professionals, trained vocalists, spoken word artists and stand-up comedians from the performing arts; published poets, novelists, essayists and short story writers from literature; and award-winning creative artists from the art world, theater and independent cinema and video.

The Entre Nous Showcase will feature a special talent every month beginning Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the City Heights/Weingart Branch Library’s Performance Annex, located at 3795 Fairmount Ave. The Showcase continues through July 2006 with a variety of activities. Donations are accepted and will go toward funding youth programs at libraries.

More information about “Entre Nous Showcase,” including a schedule of events, can be found on the San Diego Public Library Web site by going to <http://www.sandiego.gov/public-library/>, clicking on “News & Events,” and choosing “Entre Nous Showcase.”
