

SB719 Quiz 2

1. How many units shall be actively involved in a pursuit?
2. Officers driving vans, trucks and non-pursuit-rated sport utility vehicles should be aware that the vehicles may not handle as well as pursuit-rated vehicles. They should consider turning over the pursuit to the first available unit driving a pursuit-rated vehicle, or terminating the pursuit.
3. Officers with prisoners or non-law enforcement passengers can engage in a pursuit unless the offender doesn't pose an immediate life threatening risk to public safety.
4. When a pursuit begins, the following radio procedures will apply. The primary pursuing officer can choose the radio talk group of their choice unless directed otherwise.
5. The second assisting unit behind the primary unit in a pursuit should,
6. Officers not actively engaged in the pursuit should remain off the air, giving priority radio traffic to pursuing units.
7. If a field supervisor orders a pursuit to be terminated...
8. The initiating pursuit unit or ABLE shall state, on the radio, specific information identifying (Mark all that apply)
9. Driving on the wrong side of a divided roadway is generally prohibited, except in the most grievous circumstances when imminent danger to life exists.
10. Driving the wrong way on freeways is...