

Process of Stamping Frames

*Please be advised that the process for stamping frames has changed****

Beginning 2011, in place of stamping identification number on pedicab frames, San Diego Police Department will issue tamper-void stickers during the inspection process. These stickers will now be considered as the stamping of the frames.