City of San Diego Reservoirs and Recreation Program

City of San Diego Public Utilities Department

Introduction

What you may know as a place for recreational fun, is also a source for our drinking water. Our lakes are actually water supply reservoirs, which are part of the overall drinking water system. The City has offered recreation at its reservoirs since 1913, and is widely recognized as a leader in the multiple use of water supply reservoirs. The reservoirs and the recreation programs are operated by the Public Utilities Department's Water Operations Branch.

The San Diego Public Utilities Department's top priority is to ensure the safety of San Diego's public water supply. We also need you to help keep our water supply clean; properly dispose of your trash in the appropriate bins. Please check out the insert for more ways you can help protect water quality.
