Item A-

The Ad Hoc Committee working on the 2015-2017 Strategic Action Plan has expanded the plan to include the community concerns voiced at the joint meeting of the Public Safety and Livable Neighborhoods Meeting on May 14th. The Committee has the following recommendations for the Public Safety and Livable Neighborhoods Committee to send to the full City Council. (Goal #3: Advocate, formulate, and recommend for adoption proactive gang policies, ordinances and guidelines)

Recommended Action:

Informed by community input and supported by research and best practices, the Commission recommends that the Mayor and City Council continue to invest in our youth with support focused on the following elements, which have been framed as the Community Focused Youth Empowerment Initiative:

RECOMMENDATION #1: The Commission recommends that the Mayor and City Council approve the establishment of a Community Focused Youth Empowerment Initiative with the goal of advancing prevention efforts to increase safety, provide opportunities that give hope to young people, and support the implementation of services for the high-end offenders.

RECOMMENDATION #2: The Commission recommends that the Mayor and City Council approve the three strategies within the Action Plan that includes:

- 1) Prevention: Start Early: preschool and after school activities
- 2) Intervention: Workforce readiness and employment; Youth Development
- 3) Suppression: The Hardest to Serve: Group Violence Interruption (GVI) support
