Police Investigate Homicide in Logan Heights Neighborhood

San Diego – This afternoon, at 3:43 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call reporting that a group of males was fighting at the corner of 29th Street and Clay Avenue in the Logan Heights neighborhood. At least one person was said to be armed with a knife.

Officers from Central Division arrived at the location and found an unresponsive male lying in the roadway with apparent stab wounds to his torso. Officers performed life saving measures until the male was transported to a local hospital by San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel. Unfortunately, the male was pronounced deceased at the hospital just before 4:30 p.m.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called to the scene and are currently investigating the incident.

The deceased male has not been identified, however he is described as a Hispanic male in his 20s.

The suspects are all described as Hispanic males in their early 20s. They were generally wearing dark or gray clothing. Some of the suspects fled the scene westbound in a light-colored car while others ran toward some apartments just to the north of the scene.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
