Arrest Made in Logan Heights Homicide

San Diego – On January 1, 2022, at 3:43 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call reporting that a group of males was fighting at the corner of 29th Street and Clay Avenue in the Logan Heights neighborhood. At least one person was said to be armed with a knife.

Officers from Central Division arrived at the location and found an unresponsive male with apparent stab wounds to his torso lying in the roadway. Officers performed life saving measures until the male was transported to a local hospital by San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel. Unfortunately, the male, identified as Rodrigo Diaz-Perez, 27, died at the hospital just before 4:30 p.m.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called to the scene and began investigating the incident. Over the course of the investigation, the suspect was identified as Guillermo Lopez-Perez, 22.

On January 25, 2022, just after 6:30 a.m., Lopez-Perez was arrested in Fairfield, California by the Solano County Sheriff's Office. He was transported back to San Diego and booked into County jail for the murder of Diaz-Perez.

The San Diego Police Department would like to thank the members of the Solano County Sheriff's Office for their assistance on this case.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
