SAN DIEGO POLICE INVESTIGATE A POSSIBLE MURDER SUICIDE IN THE LAKE MURRAY NEIGHBORHOOD

On Wednesday, February 1, 2017, at approximately 10:25 a.m., San Diego Police Communications Center received a call to check the welfare of two persons in a residence on 6600 Bell Bluff Avenue.

When San Diego Police Department officers arrived on scene, they forced entry into the residence and found a deceased 68 year old white male and a deceased 69 year old white female inside the residence. It appeared both had gunshot wounds to their bodies.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called to the scene and are currently investigating the incident as a possible murder suicide.

During the preliminary investigation, detectives learned that the female and male were married and that she was the care provider for her husband.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
