SAN DIEGO POLICE INVESTIGATE SHOOTING IN THE JAMACHA/LOMITA NEIGHBORHOOD

On Saturday, February 11, 2017, at approximately 4:30 p.m., San Diego Police Communications Center received a call of a shooting at a residence on 1100 Armacost Road.

When San Diego Police Department officers arrived on scene, they found 26 year old Andre Mims, 39 year old Monique Santos, and 47 year old Quentin Mims with multiple gunshot wounds to their bodies.

All were transported to a local hospital where Andre Mims was pronounced deceased. Monique Santos and Quentin Mims are expected to survive their injuries.

Quentin Mims and Monique Santos are currently in a dating relationship. Andre Mims is Quinton Mims' son.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives are actively investigating this incident and do not believe there are any outstanding suspects related to this incident.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
