Chief Zimmerman's Public Safety Statement Regarding Belgium Attacks

Our hearts and prayers are with the victims and families in Belgium today. Although there are no credible threats in San Diego, local law enforcement is closely monitoring the situation, coordinating with state and federal authorities, and taking all necessary precautions. We will not hesitate to adjust security measures to ensure the continued safety of our citizens. We ask everyone to remain vigilant and if you see something, hear something, or know something, please say something.
