Search Warrant Served For Illegal Marijuana Dispensary

San Diego—On April 12, 2017, at approximately 0800 hours, the San Diego Police Department's Narcotics Unit served a search warrant at 3052 Clairemont Drive. This location was an illegally operating marijuana dispensary called Miracle Marijuana.

The SDPD Narcotics Unit, in partnership with the City Attorney's office, are in the process of investigating all illegal marijuana dispensaries operating within the City of San Diego and as a result, information was gathered that led to a search warrant being obtained for this location.

The search warrant yielded approximately 1 lb. of marijuana, edibles, concentrated cannabis, and cash. There were no employee's on-site during the service of the search warrant. However, charges will be brought against the owner for operating a business without a license and sales of marijuana.

This investigation is on-going and further charges against other individuals associated with the businesses may be sought.
