Central Division is Looking for Information

San Diego- On Sunday, June 11, 2017, a teenage female was sexually battered by a young looking light skinned Hispanic male while she walked along 100 S 31st Street. The male fled the scene on foot after the incident. On Monday June 12, 2017, another teenage female was assaulted by a similarly described male as she walked along 400 S 30th Street. After the incident, the male again fled on foot.

Investigators assigned to the case worked tirelessly to identify, locate and ultimately arrest the male juvenile suspect. He will be charged with sexual assault and violation of probation. The San Diego Police Department Central Division is asking for any witnesses or other victims to please come forward if they have any information on either case.
