Raymond McLeod Wanted for Murder

$1,000 Reward Offered

June 22, 2016

San Diego County Crime Stoppers and investigators from the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit are asking for the public's help in locating Raymond McLeod who is wanted for the murder of Krystal Mitchell.

On June 10, 2016, at 1:17 p.m., San Diego police officers responded to a 911 call of a female not breathing inside of an apartment in the 7600 block of Mission Gorge Road. The female later identified as Krystal Mitchell, was pronounced deceased at the scene by medics. Detectives from the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit responded to the scene and determined that Mitchell was last seen alive with her boyfriend (Raymond McLeod). McLeod is believed to have fled to Mexico after Mitchell's death.

Raymond McLeod is a former United States Marine who may have access to weapons. McLeod is a White male, 32-years-old, 5'11" tall, weighs 245 lbs, and has multiple tattoos on both of his arms. McLeod also goes by the nickname of "RJ".

Pictures of Raymond McLeod are attached to page 2 of this release.

Anyone with information on this murder or the location of Raymond McLeod is asked to call the SDPD's Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477. Crime Stoppers is offering a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest in this case. Anonymous email and text messages can be sent via www.sdcrimestoppers.org.
