Suspect Wanted for Felony Battery

Up to $1,000 Reward Offered

July 24, 2020

San Diego County Crime Stoppers and investigators from the San Diego Police Department's Northwestern Division are asking for the public's help in identifying and locating the suspect responsible for a felony battery that occurred in the Carmel Valley area of San Diego.

On July 19, 2020, 9:45 p.m., a 24-year-old female victim was walking with her friends in a parking lot located in the 12600 block of Torrey Bluff Drive. As the victim was walking towards her parked vehicle, an unknown suspect threw an unknown object at the victim's face, striking her eye. The suspect had thrown the object from possibly a dark colored SUV. The SUV fled the area and the victim received medical treatment for major injuries to her eye including permanent orbital damage.

Investigators are continuing to check the area for surveillance footage of the incident. Investigators are also asking if any residents or persons have surveillance footage or cell phone video that may have captured this incident, to contact them.

Vehicle Description:

Possibly a dark colored SUV.

Anyone with information on the identity or location of the suspect and/or the suspect's vehicle is asked to call SDPD's Northwestern Division at (858) 523-7038 or the Crime Stoppers anonymous tip line at (888) 580-8477. Please visit www.sdcrimestoppers.org for information on how to send a web or mobile app tip. Crime Stoppers is offering up to a $1,000 reward to anyone with information that leads to an arrest in this case.
