Investigation and Arrest Relating to a Homicide of a Missing Person

San Diego – On Thursday, July 29, 2021, the San Diego Police Department was called to investigate a missing person incident when 48-year-old San Diego resident Faviola Calderon, did not show up for work. The Missing Persons Unit began investigating the case.

During the initial stages of the investigation, detectives obtained information that Calderon was missing under suspicious circumstances. The San Diego Police Homicide Unit and National City Police Department detectives began working the case as information was developed.

Detectives learned that Calderon was in a relationship with 35-year-old Nery Garcia of San Diego. As the investigation progressed, Garcia was named as the suspect. Garcia was located and arrested at a residence at 2300 Sumac Drive in Hollywood Park. He was booked into San Diego Central Jail for the murder of Calderon.

Detectives are still investigating the events leading up to Calderon's death. Detectives believe they have located Calderon's body.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
