Man Arrested in Mission Beach Assault and Hate Crime

San Diego – On August 3, 2021, the San Diego County CrimeStoppers released information asking for the public’s assistance regarding an assault which occurred in the Mission Beach area on August 2, 2021. After the information was disseminated, several tips were received which assisted investigators in identifying the suspect.

Yesterday, 20-year-old Jose Irra was placed under arrest for assault with a deadly weapon, brandishing a firearm and for a hate crime. This case has been forwarded to the San Diego County District Attorney’s Office for prosecutorial review and the department will not be providing any further information on this investigation.

The department would like to thank the community, the media and CrimeStoppers for assisting in seeking justice for the victims.
